

GO BOLDLY

An Invitation from Jeff

At times in both our individual lives and in the collective life of a church, God presents us with a defining moment – a point of clarity regarding what He is calling us to do that requires a decision we need to make. That choice defines the rest of our lives. God will respond to that choice, but we have to decide what we will do.

We had a great first step when we made a decision to give sacrificially so that we could move to our Legacy campus three years ago. But now we find ourselves presented once again with another defining moment. We are committed to loving where we live – to building bridges to the 720,000 people that live in a 10-mile radius of our church and to impacting parts of the globe that God puts on our hearts. Radical love demands that we take action and become a people who sacrifice whatever is needed, so we can do what love demands.

It is our faithful response to this mission that has prompted the incredible growth we are experiencing at Chase Oaks Church. With each passing week, more people are coming as they are, being transformed, and going into the world to make a difference. Will we make a sacrificial commitment so that we can continue to expand our ministry and live more fully into our mission? Will we Go Boldly and take the next step?

I am inviting you to make a pledge to our Go Boldly capital stewardship campaign. We realize this is an important financial sacrifice for you to consider. We hope the information we are providing here will help you prepare your heart for this important service.
